Truth, Beauty & Goodness But does Beauty Still Transcend?

We crave beauty, as much as we destroy it. Truth and Goodness may seem easy to define, but even in a self-assuredly beautiful city such as Sydney, beauty may seem to slip through our fingers. A vision of the beautiful has never been more important.

About The Smith Lecture

The death of Bruce Smith of leukemia in 2001 deprived Australia of one of its most erudite and inspiring theologians, public speakers and teachers. A prominent Anglican spokesman on ethics and religion during the late 1960s and early '70s, Smith was active in the public media, taught classics, philosophy and theology, and had a lifelong interest in poetry, painting and music.

Bruce Smith left a legacy of engagement with society in its political, ethical and cultural dimensions. He believed in the broad significance of the Christian message of reconciliation with God through the person and work of Jesus Christ. The Smith Lecture programme intends to develop further this work of engagement. It provides an opportunity for an eminent Christian public figure to present his or her perspective on a subject relevant to the life of our nation.
